button Last edited 4 years ago by Geortre. Added after 14 minutes 54 seconds: Added slide 8 (do not switch to it for a new topic) Added a new topic: What are safes for? Added a new topic: For beginners. How to install a theme? The topic was created to create topics for the purpose of discussing questions about installing topics. To do this, in the menu Theme -> Theme Settings -> Switch to a new theme in the upper right, find the "Up" button and click it. Then click the "Open new topic" button and select a topic. If you want to add a new topic from another site, then go to the very bottom of this topic, click "Publish" and add a link to your site. -correct setting: The title of the topic should be short, as informative as possible and easy to remember. To better understand how to customize the theme, you need to hold your eyes on this page for a few seconds, and then carefully read the tips. Do not use a "good" long name (such as Trade FileInfo.lrz.ru, VoiceCalls.lv, FileReport.kg) - it does not help remember the topic. But the name is also too short, such as Trade Adc.com or File Report.lt. - absolutely useless. It is important not to forget when setting up a theme that its main goal is to give the user information that will enable him to solve a particular problem. These tasks can be different - from a simple message about the sale of goods, to bookkeeping, accounting for money. So, the first step is to customize the appearance of the themes. 2. Customize the Theme menu to enable the user to quickly find the desired theme. To get started, specify the number of topics to display on the home screen. Usually the number is displayed as a percentage of the total number of topics, but you can set a different number - for example, "All topics" or "All content". You can set topic tags - in this case you need to specify the number of topics to display. Clicking on the label will show the number of displayed topics, and clicking again will show all the topics that were clicked on. For example, if you use Tags to enter the topic "Need a new computer", then you can add at least one more topic that contains the word "New computer" in the title. 3. When you have installed the main theme "E-commerce" on the page, you can proceed to customize its appearance. On the page "Atri
